Year of the Rooster Celebrations in the Blue Mountains

Australia's most visited privately-owned tourist attraction invites visitors to share their Lunar New Year celebrations including a traditional lion dance performance with the famous Three Sisters as the backdrop.

Scenic World's front plaza will be transformed into a fun-filled outdoor table tennis arena with guests vying to be the Scenic World Ping Pong Pro during their visit while also enjoying great value retail offers, delicious Chinese fare and a lion dance bringing prosperity and good fortune.

Scenic World Managing Director, Anthea Hammon said the tourist attraction has welcomed more than 167,000 Chinese visitors to Scenic World over the twelve months.

"We're excited to usher in the Year of the Rooster with some fun festivities for our guests. The lion dance is a highlight of this time of year and it always brings a smile to my face when I see our staff and our guests duelling it out over a game of table tennis".

The family-owned Scenic World overlooking the Jamison Valley, Three Sisters and Katoomba Falls in the Blue Mountains is home to the world's steepest passenger train, the highest and largest cable cars in Australia, and the longest boardwalk in Australia.

Activities available to Scenic World visitors during the Lunar New Year include:

- Free outdoor table tennis:
Are you the next Scenic World Ping Pong Pro? Daily 11am - 2pm, 1 to 12 February
- A special Chinese New Year gift with retail purchases of $40 or more
- A traditional lion dance performance to bring prosperity and good fortune to all Scenic World visitors on Saturday, 4 February at 11am
- Delicious Chinese specials and treats at EATS270 and the Terrace Café.

The Ultimate Scenic World Experience, including unlimited rides on the Railway, Skyway, Cableway and access to the Walkway, costs $39 adult; $21 child (4-13yrs); $99 family (2 adults + 5 children); or $35 concession. Children under 4 are free!
